FINANCIAL DEPARTMENT

COMPTROLLER'S OFFICE, BANGALORE.

Notification No. 80—Books, dated 11*th July* 1946.

Re: Acceptance of Old or/and Soiled Currency Notes by Treasuries.

For information and guidence of all Treasury Officers.

It has been brought to the notice of the undersigned that the Public are put to much inconvenience by the non-acceptance by some of the Treasuries of old and soiled currency notes. Reserve Bank of India Circular dated 25th March 1941 in the matter (reproduced below) is clear that notes with only a slight mutilation, which do no interfere with identification or suggest fraud, may be received at Treasuries; only such notes as are cut, altered or obliterated in such a way as to render their identification doubtful, are not to be accepted.

All the Treasury Officers are, therefore, required to accept freely, all genuine notes either soiled or old or both, even with a slight mutilitation, which do not interfere with identification of suggest fraud or are otherwise free from defects.

M. SHAMANNA, Comptroller.

Extract from Reserve Bank of India Notification No. Res. 7-1-1721, dated 25*th March* 1941.

xx xx xx xx

Under Note (1) to Article 109 of the Resources Manual, notes with only a slight mutilation, which does not interfere with identification or suggest fraud, may be received at Treasuries and Branches of the Imperial Bank of India. In view of the difficulties experienced by the poor and illiterate in obtaining payment in respect of defective one rupee notes, the discretion vested in you under the above note should be exercised by you to the greatest possible extent and all genuine mutilated one rupee notes which are clearly more than half should be received at full value. Cut, altered and obliterated notes, i.e., notes disfigured by oil or other substances in such a way as to render their identification doubtful, should not however, be accepted.
